LAMPOONS

A series of clever sayings, gibes, jests and jokes, clipped from the press of the world, about twelve in all.

SHENANIGAN KIDS inHUNTING BIG GAME.

The Captain and the Inspector think they will go in for real sport, and they prepare to go into the jungle. At the kind solicitude of Mrs Shenanigan, as to the dangers to be encountered, they assure her that they are not afraid.

It remains for those incorrigible Shenanigan Kids to show the real stuff the Captain and the Inspector are made of. They release their animated toys, and a pretty hunt ensues, right on the grounds of the family "mansion."

They hunt a wily rabbit, and a non-capturable duck, succeed in getting their clothes all torn, themselves pretty well bruised--in short they have made such a success of their hunt, that when his beloved wife sees the Captain upon his return to the porch, she says "Vas you in der jungle, Captain?" and there is sincere sympathy in her manner.
